Generation Z and Money

Most teenagers and young adults have similar spending habits. They buy clothes, electronic gadgets, video games and cinema or sporting events tickets. Some spend everything they have but spending wisely and saving money should be important to them too.

Young people's financial literacy comes from their homes. If parents talk a lot about money and how to spend it well, children probably also pay more attention to what they buy and why. They also try to save some money for later.

But the truth is that everyone can learn how to spend one's money in a good way. First of all, think twice before you buy something expensive. Maybe this is something that you don't really need, or maybe there is something better you can do with this money. Instead of buying a new smartphone or designer clothes, you can travel or do something for your family and friends. It's also a good idea to think of a long-term goal which you want to save money for, for instance, education. Think about how you spend your money now and thank yourself in the future!

Alex, you still owe me money. I hope you remember about this. Can you please pay it back soon? I need the money because I want to buy a new laptop.

You're buying a new laptop? Why don't you take dad's old one? It's in very good condition. Anyway, I can transfer the money to you, sure! Oh, and thanks again for lending me the £100. You're a great brother, Robbie!

Cześć Tato!

Wspomniałem Ci ostatnio, że chciałbym kupić nowy laptop. To chyba dobry moment, ponieważ w Digital Fun, w tym sklepie z elektroniką niedaleko nas, mają teraz świetne okazje. Można kupić laptopy w cenach 1) _____. Mam trochę odłożonych pieniędzy, poza tym Alex odda mi 100 funtów, które kiedyś mu pożyczyłem. Zrobiłem małe rozeznanie wśród znajomych. Radzą mi, żebym zwrócił uwagę na kartę graficzną i na to, żeby 2) _____. Trzeba też pamiętać o wielkości ekranu - nie może być za mały bo oglądałbym na nim filmy. Ciekawy jestem, co Ty sądzisz o tym zakupie. Ja mam trochę wątpliwości. Może za te pieniądze mógłbym 3) _____ lub zrobić coś dla naszej rodziny? Pomyślałem, że może mógłbym przez jakiś czas używać 4) _____ zamiast kupować nowy. To zresztą to pomysł Alexa. Zgodziłbyś się? Daj znać!
